

LDAG Conference Call
11 March 2008 - 8:30 am PDT, 9:30 am MDT
Agenda

1. Attending - Kathy Anderson, Helen Graham, Tracey Therrien, Jane Jones, Heather Maisel, Deanne Perrault?, Karin Von Wittgenstein, June Stockdale, Judy Foucher
2. Minutes - Joanne Richards
3. LDAG meeting May 1 in Sparwood - Do you want a half day professional development session? Suggestions? This would probably mean a full day meeting in Sparwood. Interested - Kathy, Tracey, Jane, Judy, Deanne for Ursula, Contact Business information centre - Business development centre - Bruce, June
4. Should I plan for a SRC co-ordinators meeting for June? - Deanne - yes, nice for students; East & West in June second week in June
5. Children's Librarian meeting - I am looking into a puppetry workshop. Would we want to have meeting at the same time as the SRC training session? It may be possible to have funding for this from the CKCA program - hand puppets, more sense, can be made; Kitimat puppetry workshop - performance, developing scripts, backdrops, hands on, secondment grant, before June if possible, Marie is hiring someone for Spring Break. After May 9th.
6. Friends of the Library meeting - I thinking that the KLF will facilitate this get together for late spring or early fall. Again may seek CKCA funding.- email to LDAG, have friends response.
7. OBOK Reading Celebration:

We have several recommendations for the One Book. Thank you to everyone that took the time to put forward a recommendation.

Title, Author & Publisher	Recommended by	Comments on books	Themes and/or comments from Joanne
Wind tails Anne DeGrace/McArthur	June Stockdale	F - light hearted, though provoking and amusing	Travel, youth and freedom, life choices
In the Path of an Avalanche Vivien Bowers/Greystone	Jane Jones	NF - Timely, needs to be read in one sitting
Where Does It Hurt Dave Perrin/SP- Dave's Press Inc.	Jane Jones	NF Fun read, animal characters come alive	 Country living, animal/human relations Funny
The Windshift Line Rita Moir/Douglas & Macintyre	Jane Jones	NF - Good reviews, resolution of father daughter estrangement and resolution	Family relations
The Bone Cage	Karin von	F Reading in Kimberley was very	 Sports, Olympics, goals, sacrifices

LDAG Conference Call
11 March 2008 - 8:30 am PDT, 9:30 am MDT
Agenda

Angie Abdou/ NeWest Press	Wittgenstein	entertaining - What happens to athletes when their bodies are too worn to compete?	Is there the possibility of tapping into Olympic money or events in communities? Good speaker - good for Trail
---------------------------	--------------	--	---

Title, Author & Publisher	Recommended by	Comments on books	Themes or comments from Joanne
The Bear's Embrace Patricia Van Tighem/Greystone	Jane Jones	NF Impact of an attack by a grizzly bear on one family and one woman's life	Note - Patricia past away a while back so...
Impressions of the Past: Hulland & Turner/Riondel Historical Society	Eva Kelemen	NF enjoyable read about life in Crawford Bay & Pilot Bay area. The photos are fantastic. I could not put it down.	Chapters on Transportation, Mining, Fruit Ranching, Hunting, Fishing & Trapping, Logging and the early Geological history of the area. Currently out of print but is available if enough copies are ordered
Boyhood in Nelson: Kenneth Morrow: SP	Eva Kelemen	NF short stories about childhood memories in Nelson during the depression are a treasure. It is like having a favorite relative tell you stories	Nelson, Depression in the Kootenays, boyhood adventures
Fishes, Wishes, and Fruit: H. Collin Haddon/Grey Creek Historical Society SP	Eva Kelemen	NF This is a recent discovery of a 1915 diary of Colin H. Haddon. Sometimes it is a bit dry, but it takes you right back into Kootenay History	Fruit growing, building of the Kootenays, Steamships,
The Garden That You Are Catherine Gordon/ Sono Nis Press, 2007	Kaslo Board member	NF a portrait of gardening in the Slocan Valley with a focus on five particular gardens and gardeners. Some of the gardeners are couples, others are single women	Gardening, Kootenay life, living off the land
Wo Lee Stories: Memories of A Childhood in Nelson John Norris/ Twa Corbin Publishers	Kaslo Board member	NF This is a short collection of memories about growing up in Nelson during the Depression years. It paints a picture of life in a simpler	Nelson, Depression Not on list because it was published in 1997. Not readily available

LDAG Conference Call
 11 March 2008 - 8:30 am PDT, 9:30 am MDT
 Agenda

		time.
Seeking Balance By Anne Edwards/Caitlin Press		NF	Phone call to Joanne. Is applying to CKCA for tour funding.
Luanne Armstrong			**

June - not a lot of enthusiasm, not clear with concept, not have the vision for this

Deanne - grant for community development - project good for community

Karin - not a lot of enthusiasm,

Helen - good project, too much going on, not sure about how to participate

Jane - a group that is writing about the Radium area, maybe a conflict

Kathy - broad appeal, needs a lot of energy

Tracey - hold an author book club in the village

Judy - display and maybe a book club

Heather - will participate but not take the lead

Where do we go from here? Perhaps we can have a separate conference call meeting where the people that put forward suggestions make a shorter list. Or we can have a separate subcommittee make the final recommendation.

Please be prepared to give your opinions.

* Most important - what do you see happening in your community for this celebration ? Where do we hold a launch and finale? ****

How did you find the PLONE board as a vehicle for posting and sharing ideas?